

```
We like security. Turn off directory listings for the entire site.
Options -Indexes

We use the RewriteEngine to handle "virtual" subdomains, amongst other goodies.
RewriteEngine On

Keep them on the right track - www is the way for root domains...
#RewriteCond %{HTTP_HOST} ^marginsoftware\.com
#RewriteRule ^(.*)$ http://www.marginsoftware.com/$1 [R=permanent,L]

Keep them on the right track - www is NOT the way for subdomains...
#RewriteCond %{HTTP_HOST} ^(www\.)?([^\.]+)\.marginsoftware\.com
#RewriteRule ^(.*)$ http://%2.marginsoftware.com/$1 [R=permanent,L]

Our template system uses 404 redirection to achieve its devious goals.
ErrorDocument 404 /index.php

Add a few PHP options to the mix.
php_value include_path ./path/to/includes:/path/to/classes

Add missing mime-types.
AddType application/octet-stream .chm .bz2 .tgz
AddType application/x-pilot .prc .pdb

Specify the base path for the site. (Without trailing slash.)
SetEnv MCMS_BASEPATH "/path/to"

Disable mod_speling, as this breaks URL shortcuts.
<IfModule mod_speling.c>
    CheckSpelling Off
</IfModule>

Force the following files to be PHP scripts. (And pseudo-directories.)
<Files products>
    ForceType application/x-httpd-php
</Files>

<Files details>
    ForceType application/x-httpd-php
</Files>
```